SMRNA WEB SITE HELP

This is information to help you navigate the various elements on the SMRNA web site.

Using the buttons towards the top of each web page you can navigate to the main sections of the SMRNA web site. Using the buttons along the right side of each web page you can navigate to other important sections of the SMRNA web site.

Some web pages have e-mail links. These links can be identified by the e-mail addresses as well as by this color. Clicking on these links will start an e-mail, in your default e-mail program, with the appropriate address to send the message. Other links on particular web pages will provide links to other pages within the SMRNA web site and can also be identified as well by this color.

Using the buttons towards the bottom of each web page you can navigate to all the sections of the SMRNA web site:

∞-outside web link	This is a link to a third party site as described in our Web Linking Practices. Note that the third party's privacy policy and security practices may differ from our standards. We assume no responsibility nor do we control, endorse, or guarantee any aspect of your use of the linked site.

If your browser is capable of displaying status messages in the "status bar" of your browser's window, then when you move the cursor over an available button or "Hot Spot" link a description of what clicking on that button or link does, is shown in the status bar.

CHANGE THE WEB PAGE TEXT SIZE

Try this first	With almost all modern browsers you can hold down the Ctrl key on your key board (Command key on a Macintosh) and press the + (plus) key to increase the text size or - (minus) key to reduce the text size.
If that doesn't work...	Click on View menu, Text Size. Choose the Larger or Smaller font sizes until you can easily read the web page. The Web Accessibility Initiative site ∞ provides instructions for other browsers and operating systems.

RESTRICTED ACCESS WEB PAGES

Some web pages are restricted with a username and password, to respect the privacy of the SMR neighbors. If you have a reasonable need for access, please send an e-mail to Webmaster@SMRNA.org, with the following information:

- your full name
- your e-mail address
- your telephone number
- reason for access
- your affiliation

If you do not provide all the information, your request may not be considered.

If you need further help please contact the Webmaster at Webmaster@SMRNA.org.
